

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Syracuse Prosthetic Center is required by law to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of your protected health information, and to provide our patients with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your protected health information.

Disclosure of Your Health Care Information

Treatment

We may disclose your health care information to other healthcare professionals within our practice for the purpose of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations.

(Example):

“On occasion, it may be necessary to seek consultation regarding your condition from other health care providers associated with Syracuse Prosthetic Center.”

“It is our policy to provide a substitute health care provider, authorized by Syracuse Prosthetic Center to provide assessment and/or treatment to our patients, without advanced notice, in the event of your primary health care provider’s absence due to vacation, sickness, or other emergency situation.”

Payment

We may disclose your health information to your insurance provider for the purpose of payment or health care operations.

(Example):

“As a courtesy to our patients, we will submit an itemized billing statement to your insurance carrier for the purpose of payment to Syracuse Prosthetic Center for health care services rendered. If you pay for your health care services personally, we will, as a courtesy, provide an itemized bill to your insurance carrier for the purpose of reimbursement to you. The billing statement contains medical information, including diagnosis, date of injury or condition, and codes which describe the health care services received.”

Workers’ Compensation

We may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with State Workers’ Compensation Laws.

Emergencies

We may disclose your health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, or another person responsible for your care about your medical condition or in the event of an emergency or of your death.

Public Health

As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health authorities for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, reporting child abuse or neglect, reporting domestic violence, reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications, and reporting disease or infection exposure.

Judicial and Administrative Procedures

We may disclose your health information in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding.

Law Enforcement

We may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for purposes such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person, complying with a court order or subpoena, and other law enforcement purposes.

Deceased Persons

We may disclose your health information to coroners or medical examiners.

Organ Donation

We may disclose your health information to organizations involved in procuring, banking, or transplanting organs and tissues.

Research

We may disclose your health information to researchers conducting research that has been approved by an Institutionalized Review Board.

Public Safety

It may be necessary to disclose your health information to appropriate persons in order to prevent or lessen a serious imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or to the general public.

Specialized Government Agencies

We may disclose your health information for military, national security, prisoner and government benefits purposes.

Marketing

We may contact you for marketing purposes or fundraising purposes, as described below.

(Example):

“As a courtesy to our patients, it is our policy to call your home on the evening prior to your scheduled appointment to remind you of your appointment time. If you are not home, we leave a reminder message on your answering machine or with the person answering the phone. No personal health information will be disclosed during this recording or message other than the date and time of your scheduled appointment along with a request to call our office if you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment.”

“It is our practice to participate in charitable events to raise awareness, donations, gifts, money, etc. During these times, we may send you a letter, post card, invitation, or will call your home to invite you to participate in the charitable activity. We will provide you with information about the type of activity, the dates, and times, and request your participation in such an event. It is not our policy to disclose any personal health information about your condition for the purpose of Syracuse Prosthetic Center sponsored fund-raising events.”

Change of Ownership

In the event that Syracuse Prosthetic Center is sold or merged with another organization, your health information/record will become property of the new owner.

Your Health Information Rights

- You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information. Please be advised, however, that Syracuse Prosthetic Center is not required to agree to the restriction that you requested.
- You have the right to have your health information received or communicated through an alternative method or sent to an alternative location other than the usual method of communication, or delivery, upon your request.
- You have the right to inspect and copy your health information.
- You have a right to request that Syracuse Prosthetic Center amend your protected health information. Please be advised, however, that Syracuse Prosthetic Center is not required to agree to amend your protected health information. If your request to amend your health information has been denied, you will be provided with an explanation of our denial reason(s) and information about how you can disagree with the denial.
- You have a right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information made by Syracuse Prosthetic Center.
- You have a right to a paper copy of this notice of Privacy Practices at any time upon requested.

Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

Syracuse Prosthetic Center reserves the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future and will make the new provisions effective for all information that it maintains. Until such amendment is made, Syracuse Prosthetic Center is required by law to comply with this notice.

Syracuse Prosthetic Center is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information. If you have questions about any part of this notice or if you want more information about your privacy rights, please contact: Sheila Harrington by calling this office at 315-476-9697.
